

Let's talk about ISIS:

Does ISIS actually represent Islam or Muslims?

Saturday,

September 19, 2015

2:00 pm—4:00 pm

Avon Library Community Room

Join us for a presentation and discussion that will examine:

- the tenets of Islam
- the religious justification ISIS uses to kill Muslims and people of other faiths
- answers to those justifications from a practicing Muslim's perspective

ISIS (Islamic State of Iraq & Syria) claims to represent Islam and claims its roots are in the Quran, the Muslim holy book and the Prophetic Tradition (Hadith), recorded sayings and doings of the Prophet Muhammad.

This is untrue, as there are numerous verses in the Quran and Hadith that expound justice, tolerance, peace and love for neighbors. Islam, the name of the religion, derives from the word peace in Arabic, Salaam.

Presenters:

Sammy Aziz is a student of Muslim-Christian relations at Hartford Seminary and a member of the Bloomfield Muslim Community Center.

Vjosa Aziz works for the Madina Academy Islamic School in Windsor and is a member of Bloomfield Muslim Community Center

John Parent is a student of Transformative Leadership and Spirituality at Hartford Seminary. John is active in promoting interfaith relations, education, understanding, peace and fellowship via various networks, joint-services, and community educational opportunities throughout the greater Hartford area.

Avon Free Public Library, 281 Country Club Rd., Avon CT 06001

860-673-9712 www.avonctlibrary.info