

HANAFI FIQH

WITH IMAM KEMAL CECUNJANIN

DATE AND LOCATION TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON. PLEASE SIGN UP ONLINE AT: QALEM.ORG

Please join us as we explore deeper into our faith by acquiring the fundamentals to be Muslim through the famous Ascent to Felicity, an 11th century primer of Hanafi law: Mara'iqi l-Saadat by Imam Hasan al-Shurunbulali's. This book has been recommended by Imam Zaid Shakir, Mufti Abdur Rahman ibn Yusuf, Dr Ingrid Matson, and Shaykh Faraz Rabbani.

Imam Kemal Cecunjanin was born in Brooklyn, New York. In 1999 he traveled to the Middle East where he lived and studied for ten years. He first traveled to Damascus, Syria where he began studying Arabic at the University of Damascus, then moved to Amman, Jordan to study under Sheikh Nuh Ha Mim Keller. While in Amman, Imam Kemal completed the Classical Arabic program at the Qasid Language Institute and he also studied Shafi jurisprudence, logic and theology with Sheikh Qusay Abu S'id; Hanafi jurisprudence with Sheikh Faraz Rabbani; and Arabic and Qur'an with Sheikh Ali Hani. He also studied in Tarim, Yemen at Dar Al-Mostafa and Ribat Tarim and attended lessons with Habib Umar Ibn Hafiz and Habib Salim Al-Shatiri.
